SUPPORT THE LUBICON NATION STOP DAISHOWA

CANADIAN CONSUMER BOYCOTT DECLARED ILLEGAL

Abstract: On January 23, 1996, the provincial court of Ontario handed down a decision outlawing a Canadian consumer boycott of a paper manufacturer named Daishowa. By suppressing effective public opposition to Daishowa's activities in Canada, the decision increases the likelihood of Daishowa clear-cutting on the unceded Lubicon territory. International consumer sanction against Daishowa is now essential to head off Daishowa's latest push to silence their critics and destroy the forests upon which the Lubicons have traditionally depended for their survival....

What's at stake? The survival of the Lubicon Lake Cree Nation and their 10,000 square kilometer (approximately 4,000 square miles) boreal forest targeted for clear-cutting...

THE LUBICON LAKE CREE NATION

For more than 60 years the Lubicon Lake Cree Nation has struggled for official recognition of their aboriginal land rights in northern Alberta, Canada. Promised a reservation in 1939, the Lubicon still do not have a land rights settlement. The Lubicon never signed away their traditional territory and were able, until 1979, to peacefully pursue their traditional hunting and trapping way of life.

THE OIL BONANZA: NOT A PENNY FOR THE LUBICON

Starting in 1979, major oil companies invaded Lubicon homelands, drilling more than 400 oil wells within a fifteen-mile radius of the Lubicon community of Little Buffalo.

Industrial development devastated Lubicon society and its subsistence economy. Moose, the staple of the Lubicon diet, fled the area, along with most of the smaller animals which formed the basis of the trapping trade. The Lubicon experienced increased alcoholism, birth defects which the Lubicon had never seen before, suicides, a tuberculosis epidemic and other serious medical problems. Meanwhile, gas and oil companies profited more than $8 billion in revenues from their operations on Lubicon land. To date the Lubicon have not received a cent of oil or gas royalties. The community lives in extreme poverty, and many Lubicon homes are over-crowded, have no running water, and lack adequate sewage disposal.

Daishowa's Peace River mill log yard located just outside of the unceded traditional territory of the Lubicon Nation.

A BOYCOTT SO SUCCESSFUL, THEY SHUT IT DOWN

In 1988, Daishowa, a Japanese-based multi-national paper manufacturer, announced it was being granted 'timber rights' by the Alberta province in almost the entire 10,000 square kilometre unceded Lubicon traditional territory. In 1990, Daishowa opened a gigantic bleached kraft pulp mill -- its largest foreign investment ever -- just west of the Lubicon territory. The mill requires the cutting of some 11,000 trees daily. Shortly afterwards, despite objections from the Lubicon, a Daishowa subsidiary began clear-cutting operations on Lubicon land.

In 1991, at the request of the Lubicon Nation, Friends of the Lubicon began a consumer boycott of Daishowa paper products. Public pressure resulting from the Daishowa Boycott has persuaded Daishowa to cancel its planned logging on Lubicon lands since 1991.

To end the boycott, all Daishowa has ever been asked to do is make a clear, unequivocal and public commitment not to log or buy wood cut on the unceded Lubicon territory until the land rights are settled and a harvesting agreement respecting Lubicon wildlife and environmental concerns is reached.

Instead, Daishowa responded with legal action against Friends of the Lubicon, obtaining a temporary injunction to stop the consumer boycott, which the company claims has cost an estimated $10 million in lost revenues. In January 1996, an Ontario appellate court ruled that the boycott is "causing economic harm" to the corporation, and therefore, is illegal. Lubicon supporters are now forbidden to ask the public to support the Lubicon people by boycotting stores carrying Daishowa products. Daishowa has indicated that it will be seeking financial compensation for lost revenues during a full trial which is scheduled to begin September 2, 1997.

FIGHTING OFF A SLAPP

Daishowa's legal action bears all the hallmarks of a classic SLAPP (Strategic Lawsuit Against Public Participation) which one U.S. judge described as "suits without substantial merit that are brought by private interests to stop citizens from exercising their political rights or to punish them for having done so."

The destruction of the Lubicon Cree

Resource Extraction Effects on Lubicon	Before 1979	After 1983
Annual Moose Harvest	Over 200	About 20
Annual Income / Trapper	$5,000	$400
Welfare Rate	Under 10%	Over 90%

UNOCAL'S SOUR GAS PLANT

In yet another challenge to the Lubicon and their environment, the Unocal oil and gas company recently built a sour gas processing plant within three miles of the proposed Lubicon reserve. The sour gas plant processes hydrogen sulfide and sulfur dioxide, chemicals associated with cancer and respiratory and skin disease. The Lubicon have asked that Unocal relocate its plant away from the future reserve. Unocal has refused and the plant continues to operate directly upwind of the reserve site where the Lubicon families are supposed to move after their land rights are finally settled by the federal government.

Daishowa's Dangerous SLAPP is:

- * gagging Toronto Friends of the Lubicon's democratic right to freedom of expression. They can no longer ask Canadians to support the Lubicon Nation by requesting that the Canadian public not buy from a store which has Daishowa products.
- * suing for multi-million dollar damages which would bankrupt individual members of the group.
- * Chilling public dissent. It sends the message that criticizing corporations like Daishowa can be very costly.
- * hog-tying the entire group dealing with lawyers, legal requirements and raising money to meet legal expenses.
- * threatening to silence effective critical debate of Daishowa's actions by seeking a permanent injunction against the boycott prior to resuming clear-cut logging in the unceded Lubicon territory.

Toronto Friends of the Lubicon appealed their case to the Supreme Court of Canada. On June 19, 1997 the Supreme Court of Canada denied leave to appeal the January 23, 1996 court ruling outlawing the enormously successful Canadian consumer boycott of Daishowa paper products. No reasons were given.

THE LUBICON DEFENSE PROJECT; EXPANDING THE BOYCOTT INTERNATIONALLY

With the Friends of the Lubicon's hand's tied and 'democratic' consumer rights squashed by the provincial government of Ontario, Daishowa is now free to take Lubicon trees without effective objection from their Canadian critics. Instead of containing the boycott within Canadian borders, the January 23, 1996 court decision has forced the boycott into the international consumer market.

Since consumer pressure in the form of a boycott is the only tactic that has kept Daishowa out of Lubicon Territory, escalating the boycott seems to be the only way to keep Lubicon trees standing just a little longer.

Daishowa has a mill at Port Angeles on the Olympic Peninsula of Washington State, and a corporate office in Seattle. Products of the Port Angeles mill include pulp and paper, telephone directory paper, newsprint and ground wood specialty papers.

Since 1979, RESOURCE COMPANIES including UNOCAL & DAISHOWA have gotten from the land:

- ♦ an estimated $8 billion oil & gas revenues to date.
- ♦ 'timber rights' to clear-cut & convert 11,000 trees a day into billion dollar pulp and paper revenues.

LUBICONS have gotten not a single penny in return. Instead, the Lubicons received:

- ♦ tuberculosis affecting 1/3 of the community
- ♦ chronic & acute respiratory problems
- ♦ stillbirths & miscarriages in 19 of 21 pregnancies in 1985-86
- ♦ cancers of all kinds
- ♦ skin rashes producing permanent scarring
- ♦ suicides previously unheard of in Lubicon society
- ♦ death upon unnatural death
- ♦ societal disintegration

Daishowa also manufactures telephone directory paper at it's Quebec City Mill in the province of Quebec in eastern Canada. Products of the Quebec City Mill also include newsprint and telephone directory paper with major exports to the United States.

The Washington Post and The New York Post were cited as being printed on Daishowa paper and both publications probably still continue to be. Gannet Publishing was also cited as a Daishowa buyer and is most likely still a Daishowa customer. Gannet publishes over 80 newspapers including USA Today.

Daishowa directory paper could be in phone books and Yellow Pages almost anywhere on the continent. GTE has confirmed that their telephone directories include paper purchased from Daishowa. The U S West Dex directories are printed on Daishowa paper and U S West describes the business they do with Daishowa as a 'partnership' with a 'positive environmental story.'

Ameritech Publishing Inc. (of Michigan) is a telephone directory manufacturer (Yellow Pages) which has recently confirmed that they include Daishowa among a few of the paper manufactures they purchase directory paper from when publishing their phone books. Ameritech Corp owns Ameritech Publishing. Ameritech provides communication products and services & has over 17 million business and residential lines in Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan & Ohio. At any time, Yellow Pages and other phone directory products issued in cities in these states may have been published with Daishowa paper.

In the Pacific Northwest United States, where U S West is the local telephone company, a campaign has begun where U S West customers send in a protest letter with each phone bill payment in support of the Lubicon Cree. A similar campaign could easily be started in the Great Lakes region and other areas where Daishowa has entered peoples homes in the form of telephone books.

Pressure on these companies and help identifying other Daishowa customers is greatly needed. Write to these companies and voice your objection to their use of Daishowa paper:

- Jamie Loa, GTE Directories, 115 S. Boyle Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90023. phone: (213) 265 6809
- Jim Pierce, Director of Printing , Distribution, Recycling, U S West Direct, 198 Inverness Dr. W., Englewood, CO 80112. phone: (303) 784 2584.

Write Daishowa and let them know you are supporting the Lubicon Cree and Friends of the Lubicon & are participating in the Daishowa boycott campaign.

Toronto Friends of the Lubicon must raise over $25,000 to cover all costs associated with the legal proceedings. The purpose of this benefit compilation is to contribute a small portion to the Toronto Friends of the Lubicon legal defense fund, to which all profits of this record will be given. A full trial is scheduled for September 2, 1997 where the Canadian courts could permanently effect the freedom of free speech in Canada and set a dangerous precedent for all future boycotts in Canada by upholding the January 23, 1996 decision. Friends of the Lubicon are being represented by lawyer Karen Wristen of the Sierra Legal Defense Fund.

"Toronto Friends of the Lubicon are long time, highly valued allies of the Lubicon people...Principled, courageous, prepared to go out of their way to help others in trouble and to stand up for what's right, even at the considerable risk and cost... Without the continuing support of people like the Toronto Friends of the Lubicon, there would be little hope of our surviving the on-going assault currently being conducted against us by Daishowa & their oil company & government cronies." - Bernard Ominayak, Lubicon Lake Nation Chief the course of history continually leaves us with colonialism as the main contradiction in the world. the birth of parasitic capitalism came from the european raiding and looting of africa, the 'americas', asia, and the middle east. this system has perpetuated the worst kinds of genocide and brutality that the world has ever known; the cutting of fetuses from women's wombs, the imposition of drug addiction, the spreading and creation of genocidal viruses (e.g. aids, smallpox), packing human beings as cargo into the hulls of slave ships where 10% to 40% were guaranteed to die. all done to maintain a grip on the resources of the world in order that white people could develop (steal) the wealth, culture, art and sciences which contribute to the "civilizations" that white people enjoy today. a culture based on such brutality can only be sick in and of itself. a culture can only exist in this fashion through a successful devaluation of all life. this is why white culture is infested with and reinforces the rape of women and children, the most heinous forms of an inhuman culture, unimaginable methods of warfare, and environmental degradation. through the theft of lands, the theft of resources and the theft of human labor (in the slave trade), colonialist powers developed "primitive accumulation of capital." this is the starting capital that has made the global capitalist white power economy of europe and the u.s. possible. this created the classes and "industrial revolution of europe, the u.s. and all imperialist nations. in turn, colonialism served as still serves as the foundation of all western wealth, luxury and accomplishment. before imperialism there had never been the concept of "europe" or "europeans", or the concept of a "white race". these creations can be as a handy justification for the most brutal acts of rape, genocide, theft, and domination seen on the planet. the u.s. white power system is based on a political economy which sets 20% of the world (white people in europe and the u.s. in a parasitic relationship to the masses of colonized people globally. the parasitic relationship continues to provide material benefits to every sector of white society from the poorest to the wealthiest. because colonialism has continuously served to raise the standard of living of the white people. generally speaking, all white people have fought actively or through complicity to preserve imperialism and protect their class interests... that is a choice we do not have to make. in order for this parasitic relationship to end, imperialism must fail...

racetractor's world view is influenced by both personal experience and investigation of the truth heavily influenced by Yeshitelism, the political theory developed by Omali Yeshitel, chairman of the African People's Socialist Party. (this song specifically deals with Yeshitel's analysis of who white people are in the world) Yeshitelism is the guiding theory of the African People's Socialist Party and the basis for APSP's mass movement the National People's Democratic Uhuru Movement (NPDUM). NPDUM is a mass organization open to anyone that can unite under the leadership of the African poor and working class in their struggle for self-determination and democratic rights. by no means is the band racetractor, in anyway, a representative of the Uhuru movement but we would like to encourage anyone and everyone to learn more about NPDUM and Yeshitelism...Uhuru means Freedom!!! to contact the National People's Democratic Uhuru Movement write to: 5409 S.Halsted, Chicago, IL 60609 or call (773)924-70720
